9-RUN RALLY WINS FOR EASTERN TEAM

Eighth Inning Spurt Decides P. R. T. League 'DreamGame'

The second annual "Dream Game" of the P. R. T. League came to a one-sided end last night at 30th and Cheerfield ave. when the Eastern Division put over nine runs in the eighth inning to rout the Western Division team, 13 to 5.

The pick of players in the two circuits participated. Last year Western Division won, so that Eastern Division evened the score last night.

They had battled hard through the early innings with Western Division taking the lead in the second with two runs. Three more markers were added in the fourth. Eastern Division dented the plate with its first run in the fourth. Eastern added two more in the fifth and one more in the seventh.

Bailey Has New Langhorne Car

Promising more trouble for Ralph Hankinson's all stars that have been imported from the west to give competitive luster to his final 1938 Langhorne Speedway auto racing program next Sunday afternoon, Frankie Bailey, diminutive New Brunswick, N. J., former A. A. A. eastern champion, has fitted an entry for the event and has a new Mc-Dowell car for the occasion, Joe Dawson, A. A. A. zone supervisor, has announced.

Since Bailey won the 1936 Eastern States championship over a great many veterans who figured he didn't have a chance, he has participated in but a few events because of his inability to secure a car that is fast enough for him to protect his laurels.

Now Ted Nygaut of Reading, who bought the car that carried the late Doctor George Mackenzie to fame and championship honors and had it modernized, has picked Bailey for his chauffeur. The car should match in speed any of the stream-lined juggernauts that the Indianapolis contingent of stars will have at Langhorne Sunday, officials say.

Inquirer Tossers Beat Ukranian A. C.

With Joe Gallagher pitching fourhit ball for his third straight win, The Inquirer tossers slammed their way to an 8-4 victory over the Ukranian A. C. last night in Fairmount Park. Eight of the losers went down via the strikeout route and only one reached first base on a walk.

His Subpar Wins Open

Ted Turner, Pine Valley's professional, captured his second Philadelphia Open championship at the Torresdale-Frankford Country Club yesterday. His performances on the two days of the tourney were matched when he took a two-under-par 70 on each morning and a 73 each afternoon. His total of 286 was two strokes under the regulation figures for the 72 holes.

of Kowal and Byrd, with whom he was paired.

Kowal had led for 36 holes with 142, one stroke less than Turner and Byrd, but dissipated his chances by taking a 74, his only plus-par round of the tournament, yesterday morning.

The diminutive Johnson, down to 170 pounds after the siege of Shawnee—where he went to the third round of the National P. G. A. championship before he was stopped by Sam Snead—began his last 18 with the almost hopeless task of gaining six strokes on Ted.

Johnson ripped off six pars, two birds and another par for a 33 at the turn. He started back with an eight-foot putt for a birdie four at the 10th. Three pars followed, then his only bogey of the round. He missed the green at the par three 14th and missed a downhill putt after chipping to within three feet.

FINE FINISH

After that he needed four birdies to win, three to tie. He earned a six-footer for a bird at the 16th. He narrowly missed another six-footer at the 18th and a seven-footer at the 17th. He sank a seven-footer at the 18th.

Johnson's card and par:

Par out	4	4	3	4	4	5	4	3	3	36
Johnson, out	4	4	3	4	4	5	4	3	3	36
Par in	3	4	3	4	5	4	4	3	4	36
Johnson, in	3	4	3	4	5	4	4	3	4	36

The 5th and 17th units on his morning round really killed Johnson. He was stymied by a tree and in a cornfield at the 5th, taking a seven. His third shot was buried on the 17th green, softened by morning showers. He had to chip out with a No. 4 iron and then took two putts.

Turner had the same experience however, and likewise had missed two very makeable putts on the last two holes, so the breaks were all even.

Ted was steady as Gibraltar on his morning round. His only bad slips became the three-putters for bogeys. But he had to make some brilliant recoveries and bang in three good-sized putts to stay up in the afternoon.

At the 332-yard 5th, for instance, he hit his drive out-of-bounds. Then he hammered another over the green.

DODGERS SHATTER CUBS' VICTORY RUN

Tamulis Scatters Chicago Hits; Brooklyn Wins, 8-3

CHICAGO, July 19 (A. P.).—Vito Tamulis' eight-hit pitching, combined with their own 12-hit attack, today gave the Brooklyn Dodgers an 8-3 victory over the Cubs, ran Brooklyn's winning streak to five straight and stopped the Cubs at seven in a row.

The triumph also was the Dodgers' sixth in seven starts on their current Western trip.

Cookie Lavagetto's first-inning home run with two on base gave Tamulis a way to a three-run lead, and he had the situation nicely in hand the rest of the way. The southpaw drove in two of Brooklyn's three runs in the fourth with a single, and singled again to bring home the last of two runs in the fifth inning.

Larry French, who was taken out in the fifth, gave up all the runners he was responsible for when a homer in the third was the first Cub score.

Giants Stage Rally, Nip Cards in 9th

ST. LOUIS, July 19 (A. P.).—Hank Leiber drove in five runs today with a homer, double and single as the New York Giants came from behind in the ninth inning to beat the Cards, 7 to 6, and keep within half a game of the league-leading Pirates.

The big centre fielder belted his two-bagger in the third to send in two of the tallies the Giants got in that inning; clouted his four-bagger in the eighth, and sent home the tying and winning markers in the ninth, when the Giants scored three off Ray Harrell.

End to Boundary Dispute in Hunting Seen by Biddle

HARRISBURG, July 19 (A. P.).—President Nicholas Biddle, of the Game Commission, saw in the new Federal regulations for duck and geese shooting today the elimination of boundary troubles over hunting between Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and New Jersey.

A 45 instead of 30-day season was established for ducks which makes the season uniform in all four States.

Biddle said the woodcock season would extend the full month of October, with an unlimited seasonal bag and one-day possession limit. A two-day possession limit on waterfowl, instead of one, also was permitted in the Federal rules.

Shooting hours for ducks, geese and coots are from 7 A. M. to 4 P. M., and for woodcock and snipe from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M. Pennsylvania regulations provide, however, that migratory game birds shall not be hunted prior to 9 o'clock on the opening day of the small game season, October 31, or on Sundays.

The season on ducks, geese, jacksnipe and coots in Pennsylvania will run from Oct. 15 to Nov. 28, inclusive. Sundays excepted, on rails and gallinules from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, on woodcock from Oct. 1 to Oct. 31.

REDLEGS CAPTURE PAIR FROM BOSTON

CINCINNATI, July 19 (A. P.).—Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Boston today, taking the first game, 3 to 1, behind the two-hit hurling of young Whitey Moore, and the second, 7 to 2, with the aid of a trio of fourth-inning homers, good for six runs.

The twin killing, single and double, coupled with Brooklyn's 8 to 3 victory over the Chicago Cubs, returned the Reds to third place.

Moore, making his first start of the year, was invincible through seven and two-thirds innings of the first contest, allowing three singles to pinch-hitter Maggart and Vince DiMaggio scored Ethin Fletcher who had walked to open the frame.

A Ladies' Day crowd of 16,815, including 7008 paid customers, saw the games.

Harder's Curves Handcuff Yanks

the right field stands, but they sculped the rotund righthander and won the game in the fourth.

Jeff Heath opened this frame with a bit through short. After Hadley walked Averill, Hal Trosky singled to right and Ken Keltner hit to left. Heath scored and the Tribe got a third when Rolfe shot Harder's grounder to first and Gehrig's throw to the plate was too late to catch Trosky.

The Indians got their final run in the fifth when Campbell walked and came home on a double by Heath, a single and a fielder's choice.

Meanwhile the Yanks were mesmerized by Harder. They didn't get two hits an inning until the ninth, which Henrich opened with a double off the right field wall, and seven runs followed.

Harder's curve was too good. The Yanks hit it in the dirt and in the air. When they did catch hold of one, Lyn Lary or Bruce Campbell would come up with a sensational play.

It was a discouraging game for the 7128 fans in the stands.
