MONTFERIS WAS THERE AT FINISH

James Bell's two fast trotters, Montferis and Apollo, furnished the best event of the day at the trainers' races at Belmont yesterday afternoon, the former finally winning out after dropping the opening heat. Apparently Apollo had the race in hand when he took the first heats in 2.10¾ and 2.14 respectively. Edgar N. was driven a well-rated winning race by his owner, Charles Schaffer, meeting the final heat in 2.17¾.

Fred M. and President Bellw mixed things in every race, but the latter had the best break in the final heat, with Johnny R. the contender.

Four Grandpa entrusted Daval Hunter to the win in their class, after losing the opening heat. It was, however, Epaulet's first race, and he showed well at all times.

Princess had no trouble in defeating Miss Dillon, but showed considerable speed in the second.
