

A PLAYER NOT A GOOD BALL PLAYER, BUT THE BEST BALL PLAYER LIVING

Johnny Evers, Hitting Poorly, Fielding Fairly and Slow on Bases, Still the Braves' Greatest Asset—Travis, Travers or Outmet, Which Is Best Batter?

[illegible]

Judging from their April, May and June start each season, it might be suggested that "None but the Braves deserve to be dug." And then, again, it might not, depending on how you feel about it.

Judging from the way George Stovall, Lee Magee and others have employed the "dug" in the past, it might be suggested that it might also be employed by umpires. It might also be observed that in this circuit the umpires are more shined against than shining. But this, too, is a matter of opinion.
