Old Rosebud Takes Third Place But Is Disqualified
for Fouling Crank

By the Inquirer.
SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The three hardest of 2-year-olds and upward, with $1000 added, and the Hurd's Fall handicap, with $1000 added, were the features of the card presented on the turf to the last day of the 1919 meeting at the Spa. Many of the horses which have been during the season have been injured away from the meeting, and others will go tonight and tomorrow, and others will go tomorrow and tomorrow.

There were seven starters in the Hurd's Fall handicap, a sort of all-far horse. Old Rosebud made all the pace in the stretch, but on the far turn he was caught by the other horses. He was shut out in the early stages, but came with great courage in the stretch, and won in a hard drive by a length, with Lord Franklin second. With Old Rosebud disqualified George Stairs, which was fourth, and was disqualified in the stretch.

Life's Little Jokes—Number Sixty-three

BINGUS MADSDEN RUSHES DOWN TO THE STATION, HE WAS OFF ON A WILD AND A SPORTY VACATION.

HIS MA FELT ASHAMED THAT HER SON COULDN'T GO TO THE COUNTRY WHERE FRAGRANT FORGET-ME-NOTS GROW.

HIS MOTHER REJOICES IN THE FACT THAT HER BOY HAD THE COINS TO BLOW IN ON THE THINGS HE'D ENJOY.

BUT FATE IS PECULIAR—SHE THINGS ABOUT WHEN BINGUS CAME BACK HE WAS ALLERGED OUT.

NOW, SEPTIMUS BUSH WAS FLAT BROKE, SO HE SAID, "I GUESS I WILL SPEND MY VACATION IN BED."

WHILE SEPTIMUS FELT SO WELL-RESTED AND GAY THAT HE WORKED TWICE AS HARD AND GOT TWICE AS MUCH PAY.

NO BRAINS

DINNER IS NEVER READY. SHE OUGHT TO KNOW I HAVE NO PATIENCE.

AND SO THE POOR BOSS FEELS AND BEES AND KICKS AND STEWS BUT...
