DISCIPLINE BROUGHT RESULTS---BRUNDAGE

Official Wishes to Correct "Misapprehension as to Conduct and Morale of Athletes;" Cunningham and Katherine Rauls Most Popular Athletes

By J. P. ABRAMSON

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—(A. P.)—About 350 MANHATTAN, on the 22d, a day-long camp at the Navy pier, where the U. S. Olympic team, which will sail for Berlin today, is in the midst of its final preparations. The camp is the last of a series of camps which the team has held since its arrival in Philadelphia. The camp is the last of a series of camps which the team has held since its arrival in Philadelphia.

Brundage, chairman of the American Olympic committee, today issued a statement in which he wished to correct a "misapprehension as to the conduct and morale of the athletes." He said that the athletes were "the best of the best" and that they were "the most disciplined and most patriotic group of athletes in the history of the Olympic games."
