Phillies Play Pair Today; Martin Another Ty Cobb?

By STAN BAUMGARTNER

Another treat is in store for the fans today—a double-header with the league-leading Chicago Cubs at Baker Bowl.

This is the baseball tidbit that President Nugent of the Phillies is able to offer as a result of the rain which hit the ball park yesterday just as the Grimmlies Bruins went on the field for batting practice.

The postponement was not welcomed by the league-leaders for it is a belief in baseball that it is much easier to win one game today and another tomorrow than to win two in one day.

At present the Wilsonmen are not easy pickings for any club. They are playing first class ball with a capital "F." They should have won both games from the Giants, swept the Cardinals aside and taken at least three out of four from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

PASSEAU AND JOHNSON

Even on their worst days they always give the Cubs a struggle, so Mr. Chicago, watch out. Passeau and Johnson, with La Master in reserve, will take the slab for Wilson, while Bill Lee and Larry French will probably do the hurling chores for the Bears.

One of the main reasons for the excellent showing of the Phills of late —and one of the highlights of the season even in defeat—is Hershel Martin. He is the prize young outfield rookie of the year.

Early last winter when President Nugent mailed the contracts for the coming season, Martin was first to sign and when he returned the document he added a postcript that brought a smile to the executive's lips.

MADE GOOD PROMISE

"I'll be your centerfielder next season," he said.

Many youngsters have made similar statements in February and passed out of the league in June. But Martin made good—and he continues to astonish the fans.

Without a doubt he is the most popular centrefielder since the days of Dode Paskert. Fleet of foot—a veritable greyhound with hands like dragnets—he robs opposing batters of hits time after time. He is hitting above the .300 mark and driving in runs.

Some fans may take exception when I say that he reminds the writer of Ty Cobb—not the Cobb of 1936, but prior Cobb—of 1906, breaking in, feeling his way, learning his persons.

Martin is endowed with the same fighting spirit, the same determination to make good and the stillness to take chances as the Georgia Peach. Like Cobb, he is a bit heading the bases, takes chances that make him appear foolish when he fails.

Once he establishes himself, however, and plays with the assurance and confidence of a veteran, watch his spikes. On a club that was up in the pennant race he would be hailed as the sensation of the year.

SCOVERE TRIUMPHS ON GRAND CIRCUIT

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., July 20 (A. P.).—A winner in two straight heats, William N. Reynolds' bay colt Scovere, with Ben White at the reins, captured the $8421.58 National Stake for two-year-old trotters today in a Grand Circuit meeting.

Scovere's best time was 2.06½ in the second heat.

Blair, chestnut colt of the Newbrook Stables, Shoo- Hills, N. J., took second place.

The heat mile ● day, 2.01¾, was turned in by Calumet Evelyn, bay mare owned by McConville Bros., Ogdensburg, N. Y., in winning the first heat of the $1000 Pine Tree Trot, first division. Angel Child, Dr. A. O. Tyler's bay mare, took the money, 2-1-1, with Calumet Evelyn second, 1-3-3.

In the second heat Angel Child trotted the last half-mile in one minute flat.

Hal Cochato, Rep Palin's brown gelding, won the Old Orchard Beach Pace, second division, 2-1-1. The purse was $600.

South Ardmore Takes Loop Lead

South Ardmore went into undisputed possession of first place in the Delaware League race, by turning back Southmont 5-1 at Brookline, while the rival Manoa team was absorbing an 8-5 licking at the hands of the Ardmore Cadets at the Haverford Township field.

In the third game, Bon Air edged up on the three leaders by joining Kirklyn 14-2 at Manoa.

Two Shatter 100 At Willow Grove

Two scores of 100 straight were turned in at the PRT shoot yesterday afternoon over the Willow Grove trap. Alexander Schwarz, local target crasher, and Captain John B. Weber, Wissahickon Rod and Gun Club, were the shooters.

The shoot was decided on the Lewis Class system, two classes with two purses in each team. Schwarz won first money in Class No. 1 with his 100 straight breaks. Mrs. Fred W. Bess, woman champion target shot of this State and George Maddox, a local marksman, who had not shot for a year until yesterday, each broke 98 of their century of clays and divided second money in the Class No. 1 race. Mrs. Hess missed a pair of targets in her second frame, breaking the other three braces of 25 straight. Maddox missed a target in the first and one in his second brace.

DISPAR A. A. LANDS

Dispar A. A. knocked over six big markers in the sixth inning to pave the route for an 11 to 4 victory over the National Supply tossers at State rd. and Rhawn st. last night. Amrose, the winning hurler, held the opposition to seven hits, while his mates pounded Allen and Seule for 14 wallops.

COOL AND GALIANO TO BATTLE TONIGHT

By JOHN WEBSTER

Eddie Cool, hot from a hitting duel with Al Chasmini last week, returns to his own neighborhood for a ring battle tonight, when he meets Pete Galiano, a dark-haired, dashing young man from Baltimore, in the 10-round main event at the Camden Stadium.

Galiano is said to be a lad of the club-fighter guild—a busy puncher with little thought of caution. Among the men he has fought are Cowboy Howard Scott and Tommy Cross. He may be better than rated, but he is certain to go into battle as the underdog.

When Cool is right, he won't finish runner-up to many lightweights. Possessed of high speed, better than average fencing ability, he can outbox most of the boys, while he also hits with shattering force. Judging from the punch-strewn clash with Casimiro Andrade, called it a draw—Tacony's Ed is very good right now.

Frank Donofrio and Nick Young, Southwark heavyweight rivals of the younger set, will resume their rivalry in the eight-round semi-final. Six-rounders are: Pete Kelly versus Danny McNichols, Herman Massell versus Frank Lemon and Red Graber versus Johnny Cubbins.

Atlantic Refinery Wins Fourth Straight

The pace-setting Atlantic Refinery nine scored its fourth straight victory in Industrial League Section A competition last night when it defeated Atlantic Dairies, 9-3, at 46th st. and Parkside ave. Will Haigh, Atlantic twirler, held the Dairymen to four scattered blows and was never in trouble.

T. M. Royal eked out a 6-5 victory over SKF in an Industrial B contest at Front st. and Nedro ave. A homer with one on in the last half of the seventh by Harry Miles won the ball game for the Royals.

In another Section B till, Garrett-Buchanan and Kinzan Meats battled 10 innings to a 1-1 deadlock at B st. and Olney ave. Bill Kohler, hurling for Garrett-Buchanan, beat "Letty" Hepp. Meat Packer moundsman, engaged in quite a strike-out duel, the former shuffling 20 and the latter retiring 15 batters.

Lil Brothers downed Becker, Smith and Page, 9-3, in a Section D tiff at 8th st. and Snow ct.
