Kramer Eyes Head for Pro Ranks

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 28 (AP)—Promoter Jack Kramer said today he is interested in signing Australia's Lewis Hoad to a contract for a professional tennis tour.

"At the moment, Hoad looks like the best prospect," Kramer said. "The whole country has seen him help win back the Davis Cup. He is hot, you might say, publicity wise."

Hoad said he is unable to commit himself at this time because he has his present tour to complete but added:

"If the offer is good enough, how can I pass it up?"

Kramer disclosed that the tour involving two other Australian Davis Cup Aces, Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor, netted $170,000 in eight months.

CARRIES WEIGHT

"From the tennis standpoint, the Davis Cup carries more weight than winning Wimbledon or any of the national tournaments," the promoter said. "That's why a man who stands out in Davis Cup play would have to be given a lot of consideration."

Of his reported interest in Wimbledon champion Tony Trabert, Kramer acknowledged that "this deal is temporarily sidetracked." Trabert hurt his chances by losing to Hoad in Friday's Davis Cup singles match.

Kramer said he hasn't approached Hoad because "you know, it's difficult to talk to those fellows. People think you're trying to contaminate them, or something."

Enjoy vodka the modern way..

it takes Seven-Up!

• Are you the host who groans a little when you have to fill an order for a Vodka Drink? Now, in a matter of seconds, you can make the smoothest, tastiest Vodka Cooler you ever served . . . and every one is mellow, not too sour, not too sweet. Just ice, a jigger of Vodka, and fill with chilled, sparkling 7-Up. A squeeze of lemon (or lime) if you wish.

But why wait for company? See for yourself what 7-Up does for Vodka! You try a tall, cool 7-Up Vodka Cooler. We bet you like it better. Seven-Up is sold in bottles only. Avoid imitations served from taps or cup-machines.

Nothing does it like Seven-Up

Seven-Up "glorifies" vodka!

Save that sparkle! Never "dump" 7-UP, but tilt the glass and pour gently down the side.

tralians and admitted: "We simply were beaten by a better team."

The same sentiments were expressed also by Seixas and Trabert. Seixas hinted retirement from competitive tennis.

Seixas will be 22 tomorrow. Trabert, with jaw set, warned, "Next year I'll have a couple of days."

The matches, although meaningless, were replete with fine tennis and entertained a crowd of about 10,000, out for an afternoon of sunshine.

Hoad, bidding to become the world's best amateur and reportedly in line for a fat professional contract, flashed his tennis in spurts as usual. At one stage—at the end of the second set and start of the third — he reeled through nine straight games with the loss of only eight points.

Seixas fought hard but didn't have the equipment to match the blond bombshell when Hoad really bore down.

The Roswell-Richardson match was a duel featuring exciting backcourt rallies. Rosewall is the master of this technique and he seemed to, by with the smooth-stroking Rhodes scholar from Louisiana although Richardson produced enough excellent tennis to make the show interesting.

Swaps, ridden by exercise boy, Chester White, returns to stable after workout yesterday for $100,000 winner-take-all race with Nashua at Washington Park, Chicago, Wednesday.

NashuaBreezes, Fitz 'Satisfied'

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (UP)—William Woodward, Jr.'s Nashua breezed through his final workout today, before his "dream" meeting with Swaps in a $100,000 winner-take-all race Wednesday and trainer Jim Fitzsimmons grinned "I'm satisfied."

The handsome, three-year-old son of Nasrullah breezed six furlongs in 1:11 1/5 and galloped out seven furlongs in 1:24 2/5. He proved his speed by turning the half-mile in a blazing :46 1/5.

"He went all right," Fitzsimmons said, "I really didn't care how fast or how slow he went, just so he went nice and steady—and he did."

FITZ SATISFIED

He added, "If he isn't ready now it's too late."

Fitzsimmons was obviously satisfied, however, that Nashua was ready to merge his Kentucky Derby-Preakness record with Swaps.

Rex Ellsworth, owner of Swaps, and trainer Meshach Tenney, stood at the finish line as Nashua wound up his workout.

"We're about to leave for California," Tenney smiled jokingly.

"No doubt now it's going to be a horse race," he added, "looks like we're both ready."

Swaps has been conceded a slight edge on the basis of his close victory over Nashua in the Derby at Churchill Downs.

Swaps is unbeaten as a three-year-old and Nashua, pride of the East, has lost only the Derby this year.

FIRST SINCE '47

The match race will be contested at equal weights, 126 pounds, over a mile and a quarter at Washington Park. Eddie Arcaro will pilot Nashua and Willie Shoemaker will be aboard Swaps.

It will be the first big match race in eight years—since Sept. 27, 1947, when Armed beat Assault for $100,000 at Belmont Park.

49ers Defeat Browns, 17-14

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28 (UP)—A first-half field goal that gave San Francisco a 3-0 intermission lead proved the margin of victory today as the Forty-Niners whipped the Cleveland Browns, 17-14, in an exhibition game at Kezar Stadium before 41,604.

Dudas Conquers Lepre, Wins PGA; Williams Gains Phila. Open Title

Berkleigh CC Pro Downs Fazio

NORTHFIELD, N. J., Aug. 28.—Henry Williams, Jr., 38, respected professional at the Berkleigh Country Club near Kutztown, Pa., became the undisputed 1955 Philadelphia Open golf champion today. He defeated George Fazio, Philadelphia, in an 18-hole playoff match over the Atlantic City Country Club course.

Williams, with a three-under par medal card of 68, wound up two strokes below the score of 70 posted by Fazio.

WILLIAMS LEADS AT TURN

At the turn, Williams had Fazio four down. The upstate Pennsylvania pro posted a sparkling 33, four strokes better than par. Fazio racked up a par 37 for the front nine.

Williams and Fazio each had birdie fours for the first hole. They broke even on the second with par fours. Then Williams went ahead with his birdie threes on No. 3, never to be headed again. He had a glittering eagle three on the 458-yard seventh.

The Berkleigh CC pro got off a powerful drive and was on the green with his second, being 20 feet from the pin. Then he proceeded to sink the putt and then made a birdie four on the ninth.

WINNER TAKES $350

Williams had two more birdies on the last nine, a three on the 12th and a four on the 16th for a grand total of five birds for the match. The winner was $350 with Fazio getting $225.

It was the second time Williams won the title, the other time in 1951. Fazio and Williams battled to a tie last Monday with 36-hole scores of 139.

Perhaps the most sensational stroke of the day was made by Fazio. Heading for the 16th green, George hooked his tee-shot, the ball going into a trap which also had a small tree close by. With little elbow room, Fazio used a No. 6 iron and smashed the ball 135 yards to the green and 35 feet from the cup. He closed with a par four.

Brough, duPont Capture Title

the Longwood Cricket Club classic after drubbing Miss Brough and Mrs. L. C. DuPont in the second set.

For Miss Brough, a 22-year-old resident of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Mrs. duPont, 27, of Wilmington, Del., it marked their return to female tennis supremacy in the doubles, a title they held together from 1942 through 1950. Their reign ended not from defeat but because Mrs. duPont gave birth to a son and Miss Brough developed a "tennis elbow."

They took the first two games of the third set from the two court veterans, breaking Mrs. duPont in the opener. But the challengers regained the advantage in the fourth game by breaking Miss Fry.

Miss Fry was broken again in the eighth game to settle the issue. Mrs. duPont, serving in the final game of the deciding set, rolled up a 40-love, advantages before Hart and Fry scored a point. Miss Brough ended the match after a spirited volley by smashing crosscourt overhand out of reach of the losers.

In all, Miss Brough and Mrs. duPont broke on their own service only four times but the decisive factor in the hour-long contest was the lack of sharpness on the part of Miss Fry.

12-Yr.-Old Student Wins Sail Title

WILDWOOD CREST, N. J., Aug. 28.—Fraser Jones, 12-year-old junior high school student from Newark, Del., won the Junior Moth Class sailing championship series of the Greater Wildwood Yacht Club today with 28½ points.

The final two races were won by Virginia Maine, Germantown Friends (Phila.) student, and Rosanne DuBois, Wildwood Crest.

FIRST RACE—1, Virginia Maine, Philadelphia; 2, John Mains, Philadelphia; 3, Al Hallowell, Philadelphia; 4, Rosanne DuBois, Wildwood Crest.

SECOND RACE—1, Rosanne DuBois, Wildwood Crest; 2, Mary Ann Hunter, Wildwood Crest; 3, Virginia Maine, Philadelphia; 4, Nancy Mickelson, Philadelphia.

FINAL STANDINGS—1, Virginia Maine, Phila., 8 pts.; 2, Rosanne DuBois, Wildwood Crest, 8 pts.; 3, Jane Kaufold, 11.

Flood Fails To Stop Golf

SHAWNEE, Pa., Aug. 28.—Shawnee Country Club's annual Waite Cup golf tournament will be played as scheduled, Sept. 6-10, despite the flood which covered the course recently.

Pro Harry Obitz said today that repair work was proceeding rapidly and that the course would be reopened Labor Day. Greatest damage was done by water on the 13th and 18th holes.

Obitz himself was a double loser to the flood. It carried away his home near the course and $30,000 worth of golf equipment in his pro shop.

Hardican Wins Speedboat Test

Upsets and motor trouble proved troublesome to many drivers in the Delaware River Yachtsmen's League regatta at the Columbia YC yesterday. As a highlight the race between Paul Hardican's Gold Eagle, 2d, and Tom Carter's Tomfat in the inboard hydro event thrilled the spectators.

In all, 25 boats had mishaps as they encountered rough water. Five of them in the hydro class had spills but no one suffered more than a soaking. The only race in which every boat finished was the crackerbox event.

In both tests, Hardican and Carter provided a close race. Both times Hardican's skill on the final turn and pickup down the homestretch brought him his triumph. The only placing decided on a time basis came in the Crackerbox Class event when Joe Webster, Columbia, defeated Al Goss by three seconds advantage in the elapsed time.

Other sweeps were made by Bill Thomas, Columbia, Class One inboards; Ralph T'el, West End, Class A Utilities; John Nedschin, Winding River, Class B Utilities; Joe Brandon, Class B Hydros; and Ray Lynn, Columbia, Crackerbones.

length over Tukalov; Van Mendag was third and Kelly fourth.

From the 500 meters onwards, the race was between Tukalov and Van Mendag, who, most of the time were rowing level a length behind Kocerka. Kelly was at two lengths behind the Dutchman and Russian after 1200 meters.

After 1200 meters Tukalov took half a length lead over Can Mendag while Kocerka, was ahead by one length and a half.

Russia carried off the majority of honors during the competition. The Soviets won pairs without coxwain, double sculls and the eights, in which they defeated Sweden by one-third of a length.

Argentina won the fours with coxwain, Poland the singles sculls, Switzerland the pairs with coxwain and Rumania fours without coxwain.

2 Share Honors In Title Regatta

OCEAN CITY, N. J., Aug. 28.—Bud Hopkin, Lafayette Hills, and Ed Fay, of Drexel Park, shared honors in the International 110 sailboat races at the Ocean City Yacht Club today.

Hopkin took the gun over Fay in the first race, and Fay left the wake of his Prelude to Harry Rhodes of Drexel Hill, in the second heat.
