Cards' Broglio Blanks LA on 5 Hits, 5-0

Decision Snaps Dodger Streak Of Six Victories

LOS ANGELES, Aug 14 (AP)—Righthander Ernie Broglio drove in two runs and scored his first complete victory in more than two months Monday night as St. Louis knocked the Los Angeles Dodgers out of a six-game winning streak by beating them, 5-0.

The loss left the Dodgers two games ahead of the second-place Cincinnati Reds, who open a three-game series here Tuesday night.

Broglio, a 21-game winner last season, allowed 5 hits and struck out seven as he picked up his ninth victory in 19 decisions, despite a sore shoulder that made his appearance doubtful until game time.

CROSSED UP

Broglio drove in the first two St. Louis runs in the second, knocking a piece of Dodger strategy haywire in the process. With runners on second and third and two out, the Dodgers elected to walk Alex Grammas, a .122 hitter, to get at Broglio.

He responded with a sharp single to right center, scoring Stan Musial and Carl Sawatski, who had both singled. Grammas scored on a single by Julian Javier.

Grammas scored again in the fourth on a double by Joe Cunningham after Broglio sacrificed him to second.

GRAMMAS AGAIN

Grammas opened the sixth with his second single of the game and Broglio again sacrificed him to second, from where he scored on a single by Cunningham.

Musial had three hits for St. Louis.

Don Drysdale worked the first five innings for the Dodgers, allowing eight hits and four runs. He suffered his seventh loss against 10 victories.

This was only the third time this year the Dodgers had been blanked. It was Broglio's second shutout.

Marshall Says Skins Plan to Sign Negroes

NEW YORK, Aug. 14 (AP)—George Preston Marshall, owner of the Washington Redskins, said Monday in a letter to Commissioner Pete Rozelle, of the National Football League, that he did not discriminate against hiring Negro players and hoped to sign such stars as Ernie Davis, of Syracuse, and Larry Ferguson, of Iowa, at the next selection meeting.

A copy of the letter has been received by Secretary of the Interior Udall, who has expressed concern about the Redskins' failure to hire Negro players. Udall's department has charge of the new Washington Stadium in which the Redskins plan to play this season.

Marshall said in his letter that the sole aim of his club was "to continue to field a team that will best represent Washington, D. C. in the National Football League." He insisted "the Redskins have no policy against hiring of football players because of their race."

Marshall said his scouting reports on Davis and Ferguson were such that he intended to select them in the draft next winter if they are available. He also said he had three other players in mind—Felton Rogers and Wilburn Hollis, of Iowa, and Ron Hatcher, of Michigan State."

Rozelle's office said the letter was being released to clarify the position of the Redskins on a matter that has received much attention in the press. The Redskins never have had a Negro player.

Cubs Hand Phils 17th Loss As Banks HRs in 9-2 Romp

By ALLEN LEWIS
Inquirer Reporter

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Monday's game between the seventh-place Chicago Cubs, who have lost seven straight games, and the last-place Phillies, losers of 16 in a row, was billed as the meeting of the resistible force and the movable object. It was no contest as the Phils suffered their 17th successive setback.

The Cubs, aided by the willingness of starter Frank Sullivan, some shoddy defensive play and a pair of solid home runs by Ernie Banks and Jerry Kindall, pounded out a 9-2 victory before 5038 at Wrigley Field.

The longest losing streak in the history of the Phillies is rapidly nearing the record for the longest in the National League in modern times. Only the 1906 Boston and 1914 Cincinnati teams, each of whom dropped 19 straight, have lost in succession more since 1900. The all-time major league mark is 24, by Cleveland, of the National League, in 1899.

CUBS CLINCH GAME

Southpaw Dick Ellsworth (6-7) held the Phils to six hits and one of the visitors' runs was unearned. The Phils were within striking distance at 4-2 after four innings, but the Cubs clinched the game with five runs in the fifth.

That rally began with Banks drawing his third walk off Sullivan, who also hit two batters, both in the first inning. George Altman singled past first and right fielder Ken Walters threw the ball past second to the stands. Billy Williams and Sam Taylor singled and Kindall cleared the left field catwalk with his ninth homer of the season.

Lefty Don Ferrarese and Jack Baldschun, who pitched the last two innings, mopped up after the damage had been done.

Sullivan couldn't find the plate at the start and the Cubs took advantage of this for two first-inning runs. A walk to Al Heist and a tainted double hit by Banks through third baseman Charlie Smith gave the Cubs one run. Sullivan then hit Williams and S. Taylor with pitches to load the bases and walked Kindall to force in the second run before Ed Bouchee flied out.

The Phils' unearned run came across in the second on a walk to Lee Walls, third baseman Don Zimmer's wild throw to second on C. Smith's grounder, and a double play.

The Cubs came right back for the Braves, and permitted

Harness Board Defers Action In License Bids

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (AP)—The State Harness Racing Commission Monday put off granting any additional pari-mutuel track licenses pending investigations of various new applicants.

The commission fixed next Monday for interviews with three organizations seeking licenses. They are the Antiarrite Raceway and the Pocono Raceway organizations, which want to set up a track in the anthracite coal region, and the Delaware County Harness Racing Association.

INTERVIEW APPLICANTS

In a day of activity, the three commissioners held private interviews with four Washington county groups seeking licenses. They are the Washington Trotting Associations, Inc., West Penn Raceways, Inc., George Washington Racing Association, and the Chartiers Racing Association, Inc.

Persons associated with these groups are being checked out in the routine investigation which State Police make under the commission's licensing setup.

Commissioner Martin Cusick of Sharpsville, suggested that the commission should defer action on granting any additional licenses until the State Police reports are completed. His motion was adopted unanimously by the other commissioners, chairman L. B. Sheppard, of Hanover, and Edward Kane, of Philadelphia.

Patrick A. Duffy, of Wilkes-Barre, president of the Pocono Raceway organization, and Fred Correale, of Hazleton, head of the Anthracite Raceway organization, attended the meeting.

SCURRILOUS' LETTERS

Theodore Lapuka, counsel for Correale's group, got permission from the commissioners to see copies of anonymous letters sent to Kane concerning Anchracite's application.

Kane disclosed receipt of the letters Sunday and said they contained "scurrilous statements" which he said sought to link the Correale organization with undesirable elements.

The Duffy group wants to put a track in the Pocono resort area in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's Wilkes-Barre interchange.

The Correale organization would erect a plant in the area of Butler twp., about six miles north of Hazleton.

The commission set its next meeting for Sept. 11.

Favorite Wins Brandy Feature

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 14.—Jack Dolby's Arlington Hanover, a 4-year-old son of Samsonet Hanover, who won but was disqualified on August 5, made no mistakes Monday night as he scored a neck victory in the $5400 Odessa Pace before more than 9000 fans at Brandywine Raceway.

This was Arlington Hanover's first victory in 10 starts as driver Bill Savage brought him to the top of the stretch and kept on speedy David Pride.

The winner went the mile in 2:03 1-5, and as the 2-4 choice returned $3.50, $2.70, $2.30.

David Pride, who rushed up take command at the three-quarter mark, returned $3.30, $2.40, and was three-quarters of a length in front of John O'Neill's Pamper C, which paid $2.60.

Dave Wilcutts won with Star Note ($7.30) from the No. 8 post to start off a mild $23.50 double, with Clarence Stafford's Red Del ($7.40) No. 2, on the other end.

Craftiness Takes Saratoga Race

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. Aug. 14 (UPI). — Craftiness, a 9-1 outsider, shot to the front at the top of the stretch and kept on running for a two-length decision over Rash Statement in the $10,000 Saratoga Springs Handicap Monday.

It was only the second victory in 12 starts this year for the 6-year-old daughter of Crafty Admiral.

Craftiness, with Bob Ussery aboard, covered the mile in 1:37 and returned $20.20, $8.40 and $4.90. Rash Statement paid $3.80 and $3.30 and Fleetlious, who rallied in the final furlong to finish third, paid $4.80.

Cloninger of Braves Beats Bucs in Relief

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 14 (UPI).—Young Tony Cloninger allowed only two hits in 6 2-3 innings of relief pitching and a run to help lead the Milwaukee Braves to an 8-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Monday night.

It was the fourth win in a row for the Braves, and permitted them to climb within a game and a half of the idle third place San Francisco Giants.

Trailing 3-1, the Braves broke loose for three runs in the fourth, two more in the fifth, and two in the eighth on Mathews 24th homer of the season. It was his 362nd major league homer and broke a 10th place tie with Joe DiMaggio.

Little Roy McMillan batted in four of the Braves' runs in their comeback, two in the fourth with a double and two in the fifth with another double.

Sleichter Wins City Open With 3-Under-Par 137

Gettysburg Golfer Gets 67 in Morning; Kelly, Batdorff 2d

By BOB FACHET

Dick Sleichter, the Gettysburg pro who taught former President Eisenhower a bundle of golf tricks, gave 150 of the area's top players a few lessons Monday. He tamed Merion Golf Club's two courses with a three-under-par 137 to win the Philadelphia Open Golf Tournament by four strokes.

The husky 43-year-old slugger shot a three-under 67 in the morning as he got his first look at the wide-open West Course, then matched par of 70 over the heavily-trapped East course in the afternoon.

Tied for second were Paul Kelly, of the host club, and amateur Bob Baldorff, of Hershey, who posted 141. Favored Sam Penrecale, of Whitemarsh Valley, was in a crowd at 143, while defending champion Skee Riegel finished at 144.

CLEAR-CUT WINNER

Sleichter's 67 was the best total of the day on the West Course, as a number of players turned in 69. Since Dick was the only golfer to match par on the East Course, he was a real clear-cut winner.

"It wasn't a very spectacular round," Sleichter said of his morning 67. "It was the first time I've ever seen the West Course and on some of those holes I'm just as glad I didn't know what was ahead of me. This was one case where no knowledge was better than a lot."

Dick started by sinking a 30-foot putt for a birdie on the first hole, then downed a 10-foot birdie putt on the third. He put irons close enough for easy birds on 10 and 12 to go four under.

STARTS BAD STREAK

On the 16th, he started his only bad streak. He took three putts from the apron above the green for his lone bogey of the round. Then on the first two holes in the afternoon, he ran into more trouble. His drive was off on the first hole, he hit a fairway trap with his second shot, then barely got out and scrambled to a double-bogey six. On the 535-yard second hole, he drove under the trees and topped his second shot, finishing with another six.

But as suddenly as the bogeys appeared, they disappeared. Those three holes were the only ones over par all day. He battled back with birdie putts of eight feet on eight, 15 feet on 12 and 50 feet on 14, then parred his way in.

"That putt on 14 was a real snake," he laughed later. "It couldn't possibly go in, over that ridge and all, but it did."

GRIDDER AT TAMPA

Sleichter, one-time Tampa University end, still looks like a football player, although his weight has risen from 185 to 212. His Philadelphia Open crown now by the other commissioners, is one previous trophies from District PGA and Pennsylvania Open triumphs.

"I played with Sam Penecale when I won the State Open and here I was with him again today," Dick said. "He told me he's getting tired of dragging me along."

Kelly was the first player to finish and his 141 was the target for the rest of the field. It would have been a tougher goal for the opposition, but Paul wound up with a double-bogey on the 438-yard 18th at the East Course. He hit a bad drive,

Season in Spain For Hightower

Wayne Hightower, 6-9 Philadelphia basketball star who quit the University of Kansas last June, says he will play for the Real Madrid basketball club of Spain in the Spanish Amateur League during the 1961-62 season.

At the same time, Hightower said here Monday, he plans to attend the University of Madrid.

The decision by Hightower to go abroad for the year postpones until next year the question of which United States pro league will get him.

INELIGIBLE FOR NBA

Hightower was not eligible to play for any team in the National basketball Association until June, 1962, because of a rule prohibiting the signing of players who quit college until their class graduates.

The American Basketball League has not made a decision on such matters.

Hightower now will be placed in the draft of the NBA and the ABL next spring.

The former Overbrook High School star said that while attending school in Madrid he also will work to help alleviate a financial problem at home which caused him to leave Kansas.

Boss Blames Club, Not Gene

No 'Confidence Vote' Axe for Mauch

By RUSS GREEN

The Phillies may wallow in last place, some 40 games off the National League pace, but manager Gene Mauch can breathe easily and sleep in peace.

He won't get a "vote of confidence" from owner Bob Carpenter.

Sleeping may not come easy for the scrappy little manager, still sporting a shiner from last Tuesday's fracas with Pittsburgh. The finger bounds are fascinated with two problems—the team the worst Phillies of all time and will the club lose the most games in league history?

Generally, that's the time when a vote of confidence comes from the front office, the kiss of death which means the axe in a two-week period. But not so with Carpenter.

"I don't ever give any manager a vote of confidence. You might as well shoot him," Carpenter said.

And then he continued "Mauch is going to manage my ball club, period. And that's it."

Carpenter noted that he didn't believe in changing managers "when you're losing, because it is the best it affords only temporary relief and is only good for publicity purposes."

"I don't think anyone else could do any better than Gene with the ball club," Carpenter continued. "After all, middle-weights can't fight heavy-weights."

"I think Mauch handled a difficult situation very well, to the best of his ability. I think the guy is a good manager, and until he's proved different, I believe in him.

"You can't blame the manager for the all around deficiency of a ball club or for a pitching deficiency," the Phils boss continued.

"We hope to improve that situation for him to some extent. We may have many problems. Our pitching isn't good and we haven't any power. In modern baseball, with no pitching and no power, you're not going to win.

"If you have one or the other you're in fair shape. If you have both, you battle for the pennant."

Mauch's contract has a year to go after this season, and Carpenter said pointedly that he would be the manager again next year.

"We have to give him the horses to work with," Bob said, whole thing. He's worked his heart out trying to win games, on the farms we're enthusiastic day by day."

"You can't blame the manager about, and we have two pitchers who stand a chance. It's pitching I'm concerned about."

"I think the guy is a good, good manager, with a quick mind, and that he could play games according to their personnel. If we had good pitching like we had a few years ago, he could adapt himself to the situation, using speed with it and he would have done a good job.

"But we don't have either. We're in trouble, and you can't do anything about it. And he did a good job under a very difficult situation."

"Managers can create problems," Carpenter admitted.

"But he's been great about the

How Beaten At Newport Net

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 14 (AP)—Alan Lane, of Australia upset Chris Crawford, of Piedmont, Calif., in the qualifying round of the 80th annual Casino Invitational tennis tournament Monday.

The score was 4-6, 5-6, 6-3, under a revolutionary scoring system in which there are no deuce games except when the score reaches 5-5 and a single game is played.

Top-seeded Bob Mark will not play his qualifying match until Tuesday morning. The other three top seeds—Ron Holmberg, Whitney Reed and Like Sangster—had no trouble it, breezing to easy qualifying round victories. Reed downed Ralph Howe, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-2.

St. Moritz Title For Mimi Arnold

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland, Aug 14 (UPI).—Nell Gibson, of Australia, won the meta's singles title in the Suzette International tennis tournament Monday, beating fellow Aussie William Coghlan, 6-2, 6-3.

The women's singles title went to Mimi Arnold, of Santa Rosa, Calif., who beat Anamaria Estabella, of Spain, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

Barnes-Gardini Final

VIAREGGIO, Italy, Aug. 14 (AP)—Ronald Barnes, of Brazil, and Italian Davis Cupper Fausto Gardini advanced to the finals of the men's singles of an international tennis tournament Monday. Barnes defeated Antonio Maggi, of Italy, 7-5, 6-3, while Gardini upset Italy's top player, Nicola Pietrangeli, 6-4, 5-8, 6-2.
