Bruins' Vadenais Stays Loyal, Signs

CAROL VADENAI HAS DECIDED not to join the crowd of Boston Bruins who have jumped from the NHL team to various World Hockey Association Clubs. Vadenais, who was traded to Boston from California last year, signed a multi-year agreement Tuesday.

The Bruins' Bobby Orr will not play with Team Canada, an NHL All-Star team which will face the Russian National team this summer. Orr is recovering from knee surgery.

Eddie Hockett, a former Flyers signed a two-year contract with the Houston Aeros of the WHA. Hockett was with the minor-league Springfield Kings the last two seasons.

Pistons' Walker to Rockets

THE HOUSTON ROCKETS traded guard Stu Lantz to the Detroit Pistons in exchange for guard Jimmy Walker.

Forward Bob Netick was sold by the Dallas Chaparrals to the Indiana Pacers.

Stockton Shocked in Western

The Western Tennis Championships opened with one shocker, a mild surprise and a very predictable outcome in first-round matches. The shocker was Jim Kammarsen's victory over third-seeded Dick Stockton, who got off a plane only 15 minutes before the match. The mild surprise was Mike Fater's straight set victory over Pancho Gonzalez. The outcome of Evonne Goolagong's first match was almost a foregone conclusion.

And ended predictably as the Australian defeated American Cathie Anderson, 6-1, 6-3. Rod Laver, unseeded because of a recent slump, advanced in the Western Open championship with a split set victory over eighth-seeded Cliff Rike, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Nicklaus Tunes Up, Is OK

OTHER SCENES: Jack Nicklaus played his second round before the PGA championship in a "round of pain" and again reported he no longer is bothered with his finger. The New York Mets reactivated first baseman-outfielder Jim Beauchamp, who had been on the disabled list for a year. The team optioned Bill Sudakis to a minor-league club. Derby County, England's soccer champion, was fined $12,250 by the English League for irregularities in a bid to sign a player.

Genevieve Conn, the champion Canadian 2-year-old of 1971, and Dwyer winner Judy Dunn joined the field for Saturday's $100,000 Monmouth Invitational Handicap at Monmouth Park.

The five-day U.S. Olympic swimming trials begin today at Chicago's Pershing Park pool for 700 men and women.

Hendrickson Takes Phila. Open With 138 week ago he came from third place to win the 72-hole Schmidt's Festival and $3,000.

Hendrickson hit in greens on the 473-yard, par-36 18th. He bogged the 15th, his tee shot to the 167-yard green missing by inches.

Alan Shaskan, the 25-year-old tour player from Ash-burne, had led after Monday's round with a 68 but he three-putted three times on Tuesday, missing two-putters.

HENDRICKSON also birdied the 65-yard sixth with a 26-foot putt; the 407-yard seventh with a driver, sixiron and 18-foot putt; and the 444-yard 10th with a 26-foot putt. He bogged the 15th, his tee shot to the 167-yard green missing by inches.

Svare Took Thomas On Gut Reaction

a big thing. Basically, it was his indifference to practice. I could justify him feeling sick, but I can't justify missing practice because he didn't feel like it."

SVARE feels that, punishing practice is essential. "You can't play this game if you're tired," he said. "If your will power goes down, everything goes down. You can't concentrate on what you're supposed to be doing."

He said the trade was unconditional.

"My gut reaction was to take a chance. You have to roll the dice. Thomas is a rare talent. He is a superior football player."

FORMER Chargers' Head Coach Sid Gillman, now an assistant with Dallas, apparently had a hand in the deal. He was a strong admirer of the man the Cowboys recovered, wide receiver Billy Parks and running back Mike Montgomery.

Svare has acquired such linemen as Deacon Jones, Lincoln Aldridge and Greg Vujdak during the off-season, as well as linebacker Ed Philpott to strengthen a weakly weak defense.

The Chargers led all pro football in total yardage last year but lacked running consistency. Svare hopes Thomas, as well as big full-back Ed Edwards, acquired from St. Louis, will complement the club's passing game.

on Nos. 7 and 14, and finished with a 74 to drop into a four-way tie for second place with Pete Trenham, St. Davids, Howard Kramer, Hunt Farm, and Don Stroup, Honey Run. All collected $385.

Kramer had a 36-32-68 round on eight birds. Trenham scored 33-46-69.

BOB ROSS, Philadelphia Section PGA president from Philadelphia Cricket; George Griffin, 34, Green Valley; Vern Novak, Edgemoor; Andy Thompson, brother of Philadelphia amateur champion Ray, and Schoner pocketed $185 apiece for tying at 144.

Hendrickson, former Little Mill pro, traveled the course with Green Pond pro Bob Schoner Jr., who had been second at 69 and rose to a 75, and John Guenther Jr., former Philadelphia and Pennsylvania amateur champion.
