Perry continues successful season by capturing Philadelphia Open

By Mayer Brandschain
Special to The Inquirer

WILMINGTON — A former Hawaiian from New Jersey won the Philadelphia Open Golf Championship here yesterday.

Harold Perry Jr., an assistant pro at the Tall Pines Country Club in Sewell, shot a morning round of 74 and an afternoon round of par-72 on the South Course of the Wilmington Country Club and scored a three-stroke victory with a 36-hole total of 146.

The triumph earned Perry $1,400 of the $6,840 purse.

Perry, in his first season here since moving north from the Country Club of Miami, had made an auspicious Philadelphia-area tournament debut last month with back-to-back victories in the Doylestown Open and the Subaru Open at Riverton.

"The course today was set up like a U.S. Open," Perry said after winning yesterday. "You had to think. The greens were so fast, you quivered and couldn't relax.

"I hit a lot of greens and was only in two traps. I wanted to play close to par in the afternoon, but I didn't think my scores would win."

Perry's wife, the former Terry Bednarski, who once played on the LPGA tour, walked the course with him. She watched him score his only birdies on four holes of the front nine in the afternoon with putts from two inches to 45 feet.

Perry, 30, became a club pro after three-putting the final hole at the PGA's qualifying school and missing the men's Tour by one stroke in 1979.

Sigel, a former British Amateur and Philadelphia Open champion, counted himself out with a nine on the 3d hole after being in contention. He finished in a tie for eighth place at 152. Alan Shankin of Warrington, the morning leader at 72, skied to an 84 in the afternoon and wound up at 156.

Pete Oakley, Tom Robertson and Rick Osberg tied for second at 149, and each earned $767. Defending champion Dick Hendrickson scored 151 and Philadelphia Amateur champion Chris Anderson 158.

Jerry Pisano, the tournament winner 25 years ago, carded 160. Skee Riegel, the 1947 U.S. Amateur champion, shot 161.

Brian Stefanowicz of La Salle High's Catholic League championship team and Keith Holmes of Archbishop Ryan High each scored two-over-par 35-38—73 for a first-place tie in the Philadelphia qualifying round of the Greater Philadelphia Scholastic Classic on the Cobbs Creek course.

Two girls — Diane Rama and Edith Castor — were among the 21 qualifiers for the second round, to be held next Wednesday at Hidden Springs.

U.S. swimmer stunned in Ecuador; Simonsson upsets Vilas in tennis

Compiled by The Inquirer Staff

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador — Jorg Woithe of East Germany handed Rowdy Gaines of Winter Haven, Fla., his second straight defeat in one of his world-record specialties by winning the 100-meter freestyle last night in the closest finish so far at the World Swimming Championships.

Woithe won the event with a time of 50.18 seconds, defeating Gaines by the razor-thin margin of .03 seconds. Per Johansson of Sweden won the bronze medal in 50.25, and Chris Cavanaugh of Saratoga, Calif., was fourth in 50.32, still only a whisker behind the winner.

Woithe won the final despite performing much better in the qualifying heats. In the morning, Woithe had set a meet record of 49.60, just minutes after Gaines and Cavanaugh had produced meet records of 50.22 and 49.99, respectively, in their heats.

For Gaines, 23, it was his second straight bitter disappointment in the championships. He holds the world record in both the 100 and 200 freestyles, but he has lost those events by a total of .11 seconds.

Tennis

INDIANAPOLIS — Hans Simonsson upset top-seeded Guillermo Vilas of Argentina in the second round of the U.S. Open Clay Court Championships. Simonsson, 20, a member of Sweden's Davis Cup team, ousted Vilas in straight sets, 6-4, 6-1. Vilas admitted that he was not playing well but criticized a decision to force the top seed to play a match outside the Stadium Court at the Indianapolis Sports Center.

Sports in brief

Ernie Singletary
Bout with Czyz off

NORTH CONWAY, N.H. — Ivan Lendl and Jose Higueras each received runner-up shares of $16,000 after their final in the $200,000 Volvo Grand Prix tournament was first halted by rain and later canceled outright Monday. Higueras couldn't reschedule his first-round match in Indianapolis last night at the U.S. Clay Court Championships.

•

GROVE CITY, Ohio — Top-seeded Jimmy Connors had not trouble with unheralded Mark Vines in the opening round of the National Revenue Tournament, dropping only seven points in the first set en route to a 6-0, 6-2 victory.

Boxing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Unbeaten middleweight Bobby Czyz has suffered a torn rotator cuff, forcing cancellation of his scheduled Aug. 15 10-round bout against Ernie Singletary of Philadelphia, a spokesman for Caesars Palace said. Czyz, a 20-year-old native of Wanaque, N.J., with a 20-0 record, apparently suffered the shoulder injury while training in New Jersey. The spokesman said it was unknown whether the fight would be rescheduled.

Horse racing

CHICAGO — American turf champion Perrault and French challenger Al Nasr were named to head an international field of 14 horses in the Budweiser Million, the world's richest thoroughbred race, Aug. 29 at Arlington Park. Also picked for the 1¼-mile race with a $600,000 first prize were Day is Done of Ireland, Duplex of Brazil, Frost King of Canada, Motavato and Silver Hawk of England, The Wonder of France, and Erins Isle, Lehmi Gold, Naskra's Breeze, Rossi Gold, Spence Bay and The Bart of the United States.

•

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Unbeaten Dancer's Crown went wire to wire in a track-record 1:58 to win the $653,250 Peter Haughton Memorial Trot for 2-year-olds at the Meadowlands. The record was for 2-year-old trotters.

A REMARKABLE STORY.

A REMARKABLE MEDICINE HAS BEEN OVERLOOKED

"Jack Dreyfus, Maverick Wizard Behind The Wall Street Lion," was the title of a long article in Life back in 1966... Dreyfus' book is sure to become a classic of a new and badly needed kind of consumer literature."
Harry Schwartz, FORTUNE MAGAZINE

"This book is a labor of love by a man who has chosen to take on a bureaucracy and the established mode of looking at things that often precludes fresh thinking."
Susanne Harvey, Pharmaceutical Executive

"Nobody doubts that Dreyfus has a good deal more than just a lick of sense. His message and that of the book is simple: DPH...has been shown rigorously to be useful for the treatment of more ailments than any other compound known to medical science.
Let us be clear about DPH: This is not a bootleg drug...but a standard part of the American pharmacopoeia.
William Hines, CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

"This remarkable man has sketched in simple and beautiful prose the story of his life...
Ray Kerrison, NEW YORK POST
