

Philadelphia Mid-Amateur - 8/29/91

Philadelphia Mid-Amateur

Mark Douglas of Spring-Ford Country Club shot a 1-under-par 35-35-70 at Spring-Ford to win the Philadelphia Middle-Amateur Championship for players 30 and over.

Mike Nilon of Philadelphia Country Club, reinstated as an amateur several years ago after winning the Philadelphia PGA championship, finished second with a 36-36-72. The tournament was conducted by the Golf Association of Philadelphia.

Aug 29/91

Mark Douglas of Spring-Ford Country Club used local knowledge to his advantage by shooting 70 to win the Golf Association of Philadelphia's Mid-Amateur Championship at his home club. The competition is for amateurs age 30 and older.

Mike Nilon of Philadelphia Country Club placed second with 72. Chuck Dowds of North Hills finished in a group at 75, while Roc Irely of Cedarbrook, John Vavrik of Doylestown, Bob Ochenfuss of Indian Valley, Jim Prendergast of Spring-Ford and Gordon Brewer of Huntingdon Valley were among those at 76.

Today's shot 9/1/91

The top finishers

Mark Douglas, Spring-Ford	35-35-70
Mike Nilon, Phila. Country	36-36-72
Steve Loughran, Pine Val.	37-36-73
Jim Kania, Overbrook	36-37-73
Tom Paul, Gulph Mills	36-37-73
Neil McDermott, Llanerch	34-39-73
Jim Springer, Heidelberg	37-38-75
Gary Daniels, Chester Val.	36-39-75
Chuck Dowds, North Hills	38-37-75

Nilon Takes Second In Mid-Amateur Golf

Mike Nilon of Philadelphia Country Club shot 72 in the Golf Association of Philadelphia's Mid-Amateur Championship at Spring-Ford Country Club to finish two strokes behind winner Mark Douglas of the home club.

In this competition, limited to amateur golfers age 30 and over, Jim Kania of Overbrook, Neil McDermott of Llanerch, Tom Paul of Gulph Mills and Steve Loughran of Pine Valley all tied for third with 73s.

At 75 were Ed Wozniak and Gary Daniels of Chester Valley, Chuck Dowds of North Hills and Jim Springer of Heidelberg. Roc Irely of Cedarbrook finished a stroke behind at 76, as did John Vavrik of Doylestown, Bob Ochenfuss of Indian Valley, Dan Kirk of Burlington, Jim Prendergast of Spring-Ford and Gordon Brewer of Huntingdon Valley.

Shooting 77s were Mike Domenick of Phoenixville, Carl Everett and Jeff Hall of Merion, Jim Fair and Scott Orr of Reading and Milt Hartley of Doylestown.

MLT - 10/10/91

Nilon runnerup in Mid-Amateur

Mike Nilon of Philadelphia Country Club shot 72 in the Golf Association of Philadelphia's Mid-Amateur Championship at Spring-Ford CC to finish two strokes behind winner Mark Douglas of the home club.

In this competition, limited to amateur golfers 30 and over, Jim Kania of Overbrook, Neil McDermott-Llanerch, Tom Paul of Gulph Mills and Steve Loughran of Pine Valley tied for third with 73s.

At 75 were Ed Wozniak and Gary Daniels of Chester Valley, Chuck Dowds-North Hills and Jim Springer-Heidelberg. Roc Irely of Cedarbrook finished a stroke behind at 76, as did John Vavrik-Doylestown, Bob Ochenfuss-Indian Valley, Dan Kirk-Burlington County, Jim Prendergast-Spring-Ford and Gordon Brewer-Huntingdon Valley.

Shooting 77s were Mike Domenick-Phoenixville, Carl Everett and Jeff Hall-Merion, Jim Fair and Scott Orr-Reading, and Milt Hartley-Doylestown.

*58 W
Times
10/3/91*

Douglas fires 1-under 70, wins Mid-Amateur by 2

Mark Douglas of the home club won the Golf Association of Philadelphia's Mid-Amateur Championship at Spring-Ford Country Club.

Douglas shot a 1-under-par 70. Mike Nilon of the Philadelphia Country Club was second at 72.

Tying for third at 73 in the tournament, limited to amateur golfers 30 and over, were Jim Kania of Overbrook, Neil McDermott of Llanerch, Tom Paul of Gulph Mills, and Steve Loughran of Pine Valley.

At 75 were Ed Wozniak and Gary Daniels of Chester Valley, Chuck Dowds of North Hills, and Jim Springer of Heidelberg.

At 76 were Roc Irely of Cedarbrook, John Vavrik of Doylestown, Bob Ochenfuss of Indian Valley, Dan Kirk of Burlington City, Jim Prendergast of Spring-Ford, and Gordon Brewer of Huntingdon Valley.

At 77 were Mike Domenick, Phoenixville; Carl Everett and Jeff Hall, Merion; Jim Fair and Scott Orr, Reading; and Milt Hartley, Doylestown.

JUNIOR INTER-CITY MATCHES

Country Club of Buffalo
 Williamsville, New York

August 20, 1991
 (Due to rain 27 holes played)

Philadelphia	345	Rochester	365
Syracuse	357	Michigan	366
Metropolitan	362	Buffalo	370
Ontario	364	Quebec	376
	West Penn		385
	Scott Larsen		125
	Billy Mannino		114
	Brad McFadden		117
	Nick Napoleon		114

FRANK H. CHAPMAN MEMORIAL CUP

DuPont Country Club (Nemours Course)

Friday, August 23, 1991

182 entered

166 played

Low Net:	*Lou Lods, DuPont	76 - 13 - 63
2nd Net:	*Michael Damroth, Waynesborough	81 - 18 - 63
3rd Net:	Barrie Cole, Phila. Electric	90 - 26 - 64
4th Net:	Harry Long, DuPont	84 - 19 - 65
5th Net:	E. G. Smith, Berkshire	77 - 11 - 66
Low Gross:	Richard Knee, DuPont	37 - 34 - 71
2nd Gross:	*James Hohman, DuPont	37 - 35 - 72
3rd Gross:	*Ben Getchell, Medford Lakes	36 - 36 - 72
4th Gross:	*Andrew Lawson, Jr., Overbrook	35 - 37 - 72

MIDDLE AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Spring-Ford Country Club

Thursday, August 29, 1991

154 entered

131 played

Low Gross:	Mark Douglas, Spring-Ford	35 - 35 - 70
2nd Gross:	Michael Nilon, Phila. Country	36 - 36 - 72
3rd Gross:	*Steve Loughran, Pine Valley	37 - 36 - 73
4th Gross:	*James Kania, Overbrook	36 - 37 - 73
5th Gross:	*Tom Paul, Gulph Mills	36 - 37 - 73
6th Gross:	*Neil McDermott, Llanerch	34 - 39 - 73