

Cavaliers' Clayton tops field with a 72

By Doug Hadden
FOR THE INQUIRER

Darrell Clayton of Cavaliers Country Club posted a par 72 in windy conditions at Jericho National Country Club yesterday and won the Golf Association of Philadelphia's Middle-Amateur Championship.

Clayton won by 2 strokes in a field of 138 men age 30 and older with a handicap index of 8.4 or less.

Llanerch's Paul Shevlin Jr. and Yardley's Patrick Sawyer shot 74s on the two-year-old, 6,849-yard course in New Hope, and Shevlin took second place on a match of cards.

Philadelphia PGA

Rick Osberg made a hole in one and later birdied the first playoff hole to win the Rittenhouse Trust Classic at Sunnybrook Golf Club.

Osberg, from the Kimberton Family Golf Center, beat Overbrook's Stu Ingraham and Bucknell's Brian Kelly in the playoff after each shot 3-under 69s on the 6,823-yard course, topping a field of 150 professionals.

Osberg's ace was a 6-iron shot on the 164-yard 15th hole and helped him grab the $17,500 first prize.

Little Mill's Ken Peyre-Ferry and Aronimink's Jim Masserio shared first place in the senior division by shooting 74s.
