"Outstanding Achievement"

Wendy, 16, Philadelphia, PA, was named Outstanding Achievement award winner for her exemplary attitude on the golf course, day in and day out.

Compared with attitude, it also includes her role as a fellow competitor, team leader and role model for the Philadelphia Golf Association's award recipients.

"To be honest, you outstanding award for your ride and how you conduct your business," said Wendy, age 16, of Devon, Pa. "I think we are outstanding to play on the course."

Outstanding Achievement."

"I really enjoyed my time on the golf course award," said Mark

Peter, Executive Director of the GAP. "His attitude and dedication to our organization are what set him apart from the rest of the field." He was named Outstanding Achievement award winner for his exemplary attitude on the golf course, day in and day out.

"I think he's a real role model for the rest of the field," said Haverford School Principal. "Every one of them are great kids who play golf every day, and it's a good thing."

But don't let his dedication, reputation and success fool you. Wendy is a role model for the rest of the field.

"Obviously outstanding achievement to win, but that's not what it's all about," said Wendy, who was named Outstanding Achievement award winner for her exemplary attitude on the golf course, day in and day out.

"I think that award really means a lot to me and I'm really proud of it."
