

Savarese, Ganley capture Hoffner Invitational

Rob Savarese of Sand Barrens GC and Michael Ganley of Five Ponds GC won the 2008 Hoffner Invitational Tournament on Sunday at Sandy Run CC. The duo bested a field that included 2008 Golf Association of Philadelphia Amateur Champion Michael McDermott, three top 2008 GAP Senior Player of the Year contenders in Andy Thompson, Ray Thompson and Neil McDermott, the 2008 Golf Association of Philadelphia Middle-Amateur runner-up in Michael Domenick, past Amateur Champion Michael Tash and past USA Walker Cup representative Duke Delcher.

Savarese and Ganley carded a three-day total of 195, 21-under par. The two held off a late rally by the McDermotts, Michael and Neil, who carded a three-day total of 200.

In the final round, Savarese's 190-yard second shot to Sandy Run's par 5, 8th hole never left the back right hole location to land two feet for his tap in eagle three. Michael McDermott slammed in a 35-foot eagle putt on Sandy Run's par 5, 15th hole and momentum looked like it might turn until Ganley dropped a 15-foot birdie putt on the 15th hole. Savarese and Ganley each carded birdies on the 16th hole en route to their victory.

The net division was won by Michael Shoup of Sandy Run C.C. and Gerry Nelson of Five Ponds G.C. with a three day total of 192.
